October 1, 2014  4:00 – 6:00 pm
43 Hawes Street, Brookline, MA

Open Studios are opportunities to explore questions of teaching and learning through the tool of documentation. We bring together a wide range of educators who seek to learn from each others’ perspectives.

Join us for a conversation with Boston Public School Early Childhood Department coaches Marina Boni and Melissa Tonachel about the new Focus on K2 centers-based curriculum and their aspirations for and challenges around using documentation to inform and assess curriculum design and support teacher and student learning.

PDPs available  Refreshments provided

Please RSVP to Stephanie by Sept. 29 and let her know if you have work you would like to share: ssuarez@wheelock.edu www.wheelock.edu/docstudio