Employment-Based Internship Requirements and Process
Students who are interested in completing the Foundation Year field placement at her/his place of employment are required to submit a Student Internship at Employment Application and Agreement no later than August 1. In order for an internship at a student’s employment site to be considered for approval, it must meet the following criteria: the site must be large enough to provide work for the student that is in a different part of the agency than where the student is employed; the MSW Field Instructor must be a different supervisor from the supervisor overseeing the work the student is employed to do; the student must have release time from his/her employment to perform the practicum hours, have supervision and take the field seminar; and the student’s practicum experience in the agency where she/he works meets the same criteria as students who are not employed at the practicum site.

Flexible Field Option
Foundation Year MSW students utilizing the Flexible Field Option are required to be in field a minimum of 12 hours a week. A limited number of Foundation Year field placement sites may be able to accommodate a flexible field schedule. Students who will be in the field for 30 or more hours before the academic year begins and/or after the academic year ends will be required to register for, attend, and pay for the 2-credit summer Field Seminar and Practicum (SWK 554/654). Students who have not completed their hours in field by the time grades close will receive an “R,” indicating that they are in the process of completing their hours. Students who would like to utilize the “Flexible Field” option must have this approved by the practicum site and fill out the associated paperwork prior to August 1.
