The Wheelock College
2011 Legislative Informational Series

What

The first of a series of four legislative informational sessions on policy topics of interest to the issues that impact children and families in the Commonwealth.

When

February 15, 2011
9:00am - 11:30am

Where

State House
Room 1, Nurses Hall
Boston, MA 02133

For more information about this event:
Contact Lisa Rios
lrios@wheelock.edu
Or visit:
www.wheelock.edu/policyconnection

The Value of the Arts in the Lives of Children, Families, and Society Presented by
Wheelock Family Theatre

Panelists will represent children, parents, student alumni, and current partners. They will address the impact the arts have had on their lives.

John Bay (moderator) - Director of Education, Wheelock Family Theatre (WFT) Artist-Educator for over 30 years.

Kimetra Thompson

Linda Chin Workman

Jennifer Beth Glick

Jennifer Lillis

wheelockfamilytheatre.org

Through its major productions, school and community partnerships, and educational programs, the professional Wheelock Family Theatre makes theatre and the arts accessible and affordable to 30,000 people annually.