Wheelock College Celebrates Half Year Program

On Tuesday, January 27, Wheelock hosts its 9th annual Half Year Program. This year's theme, "Diversity And Fellowship Through The Arts", is designed to engage the Wheelock community in conversations around social justice issues through the lens of visual arts, theatre, poetry, dance, music, and other non-traditional ways. Classes are not in session until 4pm on this day in order to ensure that students are in attendance.

To find out more, visit Wheelock's Half Year Program website.

Wheelock Welcomes Distinguished Presidential International Visiting Scholars

Wheelock is proud to host 3 International Visiting Scholars - a children's rights advocate from the UK, a special education expert from Israel, and Director of the International Center of Research and Documentation from the world-renowned Reggio Emilia, Italy. Students, parents, staff, and faculty are welcome at all public lectures. Details can be found here.

International internships available across the globe this summer! Students interested in an internship experience in locations that include China, Guatemala, India, and South Africa should be in touch with the Study Abroad Office at studyabroad@wheelock.edu. Application deadline is March 15, 2015 and some need-based scholarships are available.

Counseling Center Kicks Off Spring 2015

As they move to a new year, the Counseling Center continues daily services for both undergraduate and graduate students. The staff has been eagerly awaiting the return of support new connections. Students should stay tuned for mindfulness exercises, more support groups (introducing ones for seniors, international students, and LGBTQ students), and annual programs for the community to enjoy - including the bi-annual De-Stress Yourself Day, Puppy Therapy, live depression screening, and free HIV/STI testing. To learn more about Counseling Center, please visit their page.

Development Office Introduces New Family Fund

Families of Wheelock students are some of the College's strongest advocates, and your volunteer and philanthropic support helps provide an even richer experience for Wheelock students. Keep an eye out in the next few weeks for a new webpage dedicated to the Family Fund. If you’re interested in joining the Family Fund committee please reach out to Geoff at (617) 879-2011 or gwhaley@wheelock.edu.
